This, my Eleventh Edition, comes forth as usual in good time and with an increase of population, (which I hope will be permitted to remain.) Many have died, and many have gone away, which makes the number of old names hundreds less; but many have come in the city during the last year, which increases the number of names over last year nearly 200. The number of names for this year is 5,800, last year 5,650. There were 250 buildings erected last year, many of which are large and costly dwellings, in the following streets, viz: Academy, Arch, Augusta, Bank, Beach, Beers, Bloomfield Avenue, Broad, Boudinot, Centre, Cherry, Church, Clinton, Columbia, Commerce, Court, Cross, Fair, Ferry, Fulton, Grand, Green, Hamilton, High, Inclined Plane, Lafayette, Liberty, Lock, Lumber, Market, McWhorter, Mechanic, Mulberry, N. Broad, N. Essex, Plane, Plume, Pierson's Court, Quarry, Rankin, River, Sheffield, Shipman, Smith, South Broad, South Essex, South Market, South Orange Avenue, Spring, State, Stephens Court, Union, Ward, Wards Lumber Yard, Washington Alley, Washington Place, Washington street and William, making a grand total of two hundred and fifty buildings, and of five hundred buildings in three years, and yet there were many families that could not get a house or part of a house, when my Directory went to press.

I give here a synopsis of the most useful matter contained in my eleven editions, viz:

- 1835 History of Newark; Statement of Business of the N. J. Rail Road.
- 1836 History of Newark; Incorporation of Newark: City Government; Standing Committees, &c.
- 1837 History of Newark; Supplement to the Charter of Newark; Bethlehem and Nazareth Schools; Census of Newark in 1836.
- 1838 History of Newark; Census of Newark in 1836; Settings of Congress.
- 1839 History of Newark; Census in 1836.
- 1840 Runners Guide; Chronological History of N. J.; Commerce of the U. States.
- 1841 Imports and Exports of the U. S.; Chronological History of N. J.; Population of American Cities: Census of New York City for 1840; Census of Newark for 1840.
- 1842 Number of Persons engaged in Manufactures in the U. States; Constitution of the U. States: Census of the U. States for 1840.
- 1843 The National Executive Army of 1842: History of Croton Aqueduct.
- 1844 New Jersey Executive of 1843-4: Presidential Elections since the adoption of the Constitution: Mount Pleasant Cemetery Incorporation, Officers &c.: Synods of New Jersey and New York.
- 1845 New Jersey Executive: The New Constitution of New Jersey: Texas Annexation Vote.

The TEXAS ANNEXATION RESOLUTIONS, engrossed on parchment, with the signatures of the officers of Congress, were presented to the President, Mr. Tyler, on Saturday, and signed by him immediately, and have thus become a law. The vote by which the resolutions as amended by the Senate finally passed the House, 132 to 76, was strictly a party vote; that is, Mr. Dellet of Ala. is the only Whig who voted for them, and Mr. R. D. Davis of N. Y., and Hale of New Hampshire, are the only Democrats who had the boldness to vote against them. The Morning News thus classifies the vote in each House by States.

States	SENATE.		HOUSE.

Maine,	1	1	5	2
New Hampshire,	2		3	*1

Total.	27	25	133	77	13

* One a Democrat; † one a Whig; otherwise the vote in each branch was strictly a party vote.

He who steals my purse steals trash; but he who borrows my Directory steals that which not enriches him, but makes me poor indeed.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1845.

1. All men are by nature free and independent, and have certain natural and unalienable rights, among which are those of enjoying and defending life and liberty, acquiring, possessing, and protecting property, and of pursuing and obtaining safety and happiness.

2. All political power is inherent in the people.

Government is instituted for the protection, security, and benefit of the people, and they have the right at all times to alter or reform the same, whenever the public good may require it

3. No person shall be deprived of the inestimable privilege of worshipping Almighty God in a manner agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; nor under any pretence whatever be compelled to attend any place of worship contrary to his faith and judgment; nor shall any person be obliged to pay tithes, taxes, or other rates for building or repairing any church or churches, place or places of worship, or for the maintenance of any minister or ministry, contrary to what he believes to be right, or has deliberately and voluntarily engaged to perform.

4. There shall be no establishment of one religious sect in preference to another; no religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office of public trust, and no person shall be denied the enjoyment of any civil right merely on account of his religious principles.

5. Every person may freely speak, write, and publish his sentiments on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right. No law shall be passed to restrain or abridge the liberty of speech or of the press. In all prosecutions or indictments for libel, the truth may be given in evidence to the jury; and if it shall appear to the jury that the matter charged as libellous is true, and was published with good motives and for justifiable ends, the party shall be acquitted; and the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the fact.

6. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated; and no warrant shall issue but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the papers and things to be seized.

7. The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate; but the legislature may authorize the trial of civil suits when the matter in dispute does not exceed fifty dollars, by a jury of six men.

8. In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury; to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation ; to be confronted with the witnesses against him ; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel in his defence.

9. No person shall be held to answer for a criminal offence, unless on the presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases of impeachment, or in cases cognizable by justices of the peace, or arising in the army or navy, or in the militia when in actual service in time of war or public danger.

10. No person shall, after acquittal, be tried for the same offence. All persons shall, before conviction, be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offences, when the proof is evident or presumption great.

11. The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless in case of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

12. The military shall be in strict subordination to the civil power.

13. No soldiers shall in time of peace, be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, except in a manner prescribed by law.

14. Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against it, or in adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason, unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

15. Excessive bail shall not be required, excessive fines shall not be imposed, and cruel and unusual punishments shall not be inflicted.

16. Private property shall not be taken for public use without just compensation ; but land may be taken for public highways as heretofore until the Legislature shall direct compensation to be made.

17. No person shall be imprisoned for debt in any action, or on any judgment founded upon contract, unless in cases of fraud ; nor shall any person be imprisoned for a militia fine in time of peace.

18. The people have a right freely to assemble together, to consult for the common good, to make known their opinions to their representatives, and to petition for redress of grievances.

19. This enumeration of rights and privileges shall not be construed to impair or deny others retained by the people.

Article II—Right of Suffrage.

1. Every white male citizen of the United States, of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a resident of this state one year, and of the county in which he claims his vote five months, next before the election, shall be entitled to vote for all officers that now are, or hereafter may be elective by the people; provided, that no person in the military, naval, or marine service of the United States shall be considered a resident in this state by being stationed in any garrison, barrack, or military or naval place or station within the state; and no pauper, idiot, insane person, or person convicted of a crime which now excludes him from being a witness, unless pardoned or restored by law to the right of suffrage, shall enjoy the right of an elector.

2. The legislature may pass laws to deprive persons of the right of suffrage who shall be convicted of bribery at elections.

Article III—Distribution of the Powers of Government.

The powers of the government shall be divided into three distinct departments—the legislative, executive and judicial; and no person or persons belonging to, or constituting one of these departments, shall exercise any of the powers properly belonging to either of the others, except as herein expressly provided.

Article IV—Legislative.

SECTION 1.

1. The legislative power shall be vested in a Senate and General Assembly.

2. No person shall be a member of the Senate who shall not have attained the age of thirty years, and have been a citizen and inhabitant of the state for four years, and of the county for which he shall be chosen one year, next before his election; and no person shall be a member of the General Assembly who shall not have attained the age of twenty one years, and have been a citizen and inhabitant of the state for two years, and of the county for which he shall be chosen one year next before his election; provided, that no person shall be eligible as a member of either house of the legislature, who shall not be entitled to the right of suffrage.

3. Members of the Senate and General Assembly shall be elected yearly and every year, on the second Tuesday of October; and the two houses shall meet separately on the second Tuesday in January next after the said day of election, at which time of meeting, the Legislative year shall commence; but the time of holding such election may be altered by the legislature.

SECTION II.

1. The Senate shall be composed of one senator from each county in the state elected by the legal voters of the counties, respectively, for three years.

The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the first year; of the second class at the expiration of the second year; and of the third class at the expiration of the third year; so that one class may be elected every year; and if vacancies happen, by resignation or otherwise, the persons elected to supply such vacancies shall be elected for the unexpired terms only.

SECTION III.

1. The General Assembly shall be composed of members annually elected by the legal voters of the counties, respectively, who shall be apportioned among the said counties as nearly as may be according to the number of their inhabitants. The present apportionment shall continue until the next census of the United States shall have been taken, and an apportionment of members of the General Assembly shall be made by the legislature at its first session after the next and every subsequent enumeration or census, and when made shall remain unaltered until another enumeration shall have been taken; provided, that each county shall at all times be entitled to one member; and the whole number of members shall never exceed sixty.

SECTION IV.

1. Each house shall direct writs of election for supplying vacancies, occasioned by death, resignation, or otherwise; but if vacancies occur during the recess of the legislature, the writs may be issued by the governor, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

2. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns, and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties, as each house may provide.

3. Each house shall choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, may expel a member.

4. Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same; and the yeas and

NEWARK YOUNG LADIES' SEMINARY.

191 Washington street.

This Institution has been in successful operation for about four years. It is designed to confer an education of a solid and substantial character; to give thorough instruction, first of all in the great elements of knowledge, then in the higher branches, according to the age and capacity of the pupils, till such attainments are made as may fit them for eminent usefulness in their appropriate sphere of duties.

The location of the School combines many advantages. The city of Newark is but nine miles from the city of New York, and is accessible from all points, by steamboat or rail-road. The moral and religious privileges enjoyed in Newark, and the delightful natural scenery by which it is surrounded, render it a most desirable place of residence.

The building is large and commodious—consequently the unhealthy atmosphere caused in small, badly ventilated rooms is wholly avoided.

VACATIONS.

A recess of a week is given at the holidays—another during the spring—and the usual Summer Vacation from four to six weeks.

THE MISSES BUCKNALL'S FEMALE SEMINARY.

No. 382 Broad street

In this institution, the more solid and useful branches of Female Education, are taught with special care, while all requisite attention is given to those of an Ornamental character.

The science of vocal music is taught as a regular branch of Education. All the pupils attending the Institution constitute the music class. This arrangement not only affords an agreeable relaxation from severe studies, but also proves an invaluable aid in the art and science of Elocution.

The course of studies embraces Languages, Geography, Mathematics, Natural and intellectual Science, Music and Theology.

There is one Vacation and one Recess.

The Vacation commences at the close of the fourth term in July, and continues till the first Monday in September. The Recess comprehends the Christmas holidays.

CLASSICAL AND SELECT ENGLISH SCHOOL,

At No. 8½ Green St.

Limited to thirty Students.

At the solicitation of a few gentlemen of this city, this School has been opened, the object of which is to train boys thoroughly and systematically for any class in College, and for the various departments of business life.

From several years' experience in teaching, the proprietor is satisfied of the superiority, in every respect, of limited Schools, and therefore determines to restrict his number to thirty students.

OSCAR FISHER.

The following is appended.

The undersigned, having been for several months acquainted with Mr. Oscar Fisher, a graduate of Yale College, and several of us having sons under his instruction, take pleasure, though unsolicited, in recommending his Select Classical and English School to those parents who wish to place their sons under judicious, efficient and thorough instruction. We believe that Mr. Fisher has the qualifications peculiarly desirable in a teacher of youth, and which will we trust, be properly appreciated in this city.

NEWARK SELECT ENGLISH SEMINARY, FOR YOUNG MISSES AND MASTERS.

Located in the basement of the Universalist Church, Clinton Street.

REUBEN PORTER, Jr. Principal.

This institution will be conducted upon a principle which is designed to develop the reasoning faculties of the youth in every stage of their progress, to thoroughly ground them in the elementary branches, and render the acquisition dependent upon the expansion of the intellect and capability of the pupil. As the science of Mathematics has a tendency to discipline, invigorate, and enlarge the powers of the mind, its elucidation will therefore be perfectly comprehensible, its demonstrations methodical, and its application to the mechanical and mercantile pursuits, thorough and practical.

The principal would with ineffable delight, return his sincere acknowledgements to those worthy gentlemen who have so liberally favored him with their patronage, assuring them and the public generally, that all his exertions will be concentrated in the welfare and advancement in literature, of those placed under his superintendence and instruction.

The next term of this institution will commence on Monday April 7th, and continue Twelve weeks.

The studies pursued are, Reading, Spelling, Writing, Geography, Grammar, Arithmetic, Declamation and Composition, Ancient and Modern History, Logic, Natural and Moral Philosophy, Chemistry, Botany, Astronomy, Mineralogy, Geology.

Terms, from $2 50 to $6 00.

No Pupil received for a less time than one term, and no deduction for lost time, protracted sickness excepted. Pupils will be received at any time during the term. Patrons are solicited to visit the school frequently, as it has a tendency to stimulate the pupil to a more assiduous application to study.

A recess of a week is given at the Holydays—another during the Spring—and the usual Summer Vacation.

PIERSON'S
NEWARK CITY DIRECTORY,

FOR THE
70th YEAR OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE,
FROM 4th OF JULY, 1845.

Important observations to those using this work.

Throughout this Directory, the christian names of those where there are more than one of the same surname, are carefully alphabetically arranged, male and female, firms, &c. In searching for a name, the inquirer must know the proper spelling. For example a person seeking for—Pirsson, will not find the one sought for if he looks in the names of Pierson; so, also, for—Bonnel, he should not look among the Bunnels; and for Conger not in Congar: and for Parcels not look in Parsals or Parceils; not for Hays in Hayes.

h. stands for house—n. near—c. corner—r. residence—
